

Changeless

“For I am the LORD, I do not change.” Malachi 3:6

God never changes. Why? He doesn't need to. He is perfect – without flaw, error, inconsistency, mistake, or poor judgment. God is not moody. He doesn't have good moods and bad moods. God is angry with the wicked everyday (Psalm 7:11), and He shows forth His lovingkindness every morning and His faithfulness every night (Psalm 92:2) to those who seek His mercies. He is always righteous. His goodness, His purity, His holy nature, His justice, and His character are eternal.

Knowing God is changeless means you can fully trust Him and wholly obey Him:

You can believe God like Abraham because He is the same God;

You can praise Him like David because He is the same God;

You can worship Him like Isaiah because He is the same God;

You can cry out to Him like Moses because He is the same God;

You can serve Him like Ezra because He is the same God;

You can pray like Hannah because He is the same God;

You can surrender to Him like Ruth because He is the same God;

You can proclaim Him like Paul because He is the same God;

You can obey Him like Mary because He is the same God;

You can love Him like John because He is the same God.
